School District of Lancaster Receives Two Awards for Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting

LANCASTER, PA — The Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting has been awarded to the School District of Lancaster by the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) for its comprehensive annual financial report (CAFR). Its attainment represents a significant accomplishment by a government and its management. This is the 11th year the district has received an award for its CAFR. For more information about the award, visit gfoa.org/coa

The Certificate of Excellence in Financial Reporting (COE) has been awarded to the district by the Association of School Business Officials (ASBO) International for having met or exceeded the program's high standards for financial reporting and accountability. This is the 9th year the COE is awarded to the District. For more information about the COE award, visit asbointl.org/COE.

School District of Lancaster Chief of Finance and Operations Matthew Przywara commented, "We are excited to learn that we have received both awards again for the 2019 fiscal year. This is truly a testament to our great team in the Office of Business & Operations and our continued commitment towards achieving excellence in the School District of Lancaster".

Both awards were attained for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2019 and confirm the School District of Lancaster's commitment to financial accountability and transparency. Recognition through both programs helps strengthen the district's presentation for bond issuance statements and promotes a high level of financial reporting and community accountability.
